

18 U.S.C. 800

Whoever, not being duly authorized by or pursuant to law to do so, willfully imparts or communicates to any person or makes public information identifying or tending to identify an employee of the United States Government, or other person, as one who at any time has been or is presently engaged in or furthering foreign intelligence operations on behalf of the United States shall be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned not more than ten years, or both.